GOOD NEWS

Mrs. Milch stated we lost two important people in this school community this past week. Charles Olgiati was a school district stalwart his entire life. He was a student here and was the star on the football team for Coaches Al Wistert and Rocky Cancellieri when the team won the South Jersey championship. He served on the Board of Education for 12 years, giving back to the district for each year he was a student. He founded the Rams Booster Club, run by parents, and after being inducted in the Sports Hall of Fame joined the selection committee, serving as chairman for the past 20 years. Robert Goldschmidt served as superintendent from 2005 to 2012, in a time when we needed his leadership, his demeanor, and his kindness. He was a friendly face in the community. He looked and found the good in everyone. He made the world a better place one conversation at a time. Charles Olgiati and Robert Goldschmidt—Thank you and farewell.
